

* This current edition of MindMatters resources remains unedited and is intended as a school consultation DRAFT. This DRAFT material may be updated when additional MindMatters resources are completed. Please refer to the disclaimer attached to this material and on the website for details of the Commonwealth's limitation of liability in relation to this material.

© Commonwealth of Australia 2010.

This work is copyright. Provided acknowledgement is made to the sources, schools are permitted to copy material freely for communication with teachers, students, parents or community members. No part may be reproduced for any other use than that permitted under the Copyright Act 1968, without written permission from the Commonwealth of Australia. Requests and inquiries concerning reproduction and rights should be addressed to the Commonwealth Copyright Administration, Attorney-General's Department, Robert Garran Offices, National Circuit, Barton ACT 2600 or posted at <http://www.ag.gov.au/cca>.

While all care has been taken in the preparation of this material, the Commonwealth accepts no liability for any injury or loss or damage arising from the use of, or reliance upon, the content of this publication. Furthermore, the material herein does not necessarily represent the views of the Department of Health and Ageing nor of any mental health service provider.

Every effort has been made to contact the copyright holder of material used in the MindMatters materials. If accidental infringement has occurred, please contact the publisher.

MindMatters is funded by the Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing.

CONTENTS

Introduction1

- The MindMatters initiatives1
- MindMatters – the background1
- The MindMatters approach to mental health and wellbeing.....2
- MindMatters’ aims.....3
- Introducing Whole School Matters.....3
- Whole School Matters and the 2010 MindMatters resource.....3
- How to use this booklet.....5
- The audience for this booklet.....6
- How members of the school community can use this book6

Section 1 Key concepts and rationale7

- What is mental health and wellbeing?.....7
- A Whole School Approach to mental health and wellbeing8
- MindMatters and the Whole Student Approach11
- MindMatters, the WHO Model and students experiencing high support needs in mental health.....12

Section 2 Adolescent mental health and wellbeing – building resilience, protective and risk factors13

- Protective factors and resilience13
- Whole school protective factors13
- Using protective factors in the school context14
- Peer and student group protective factors15
- Individual protective factors16
- Positive self-perception.....17
- Coping skills17
- Positive sense of own identity18
- Sense of personal choice18
- Family and community protective factors19
- Risk factors for mental health and wellbeing19
- MindMatters risk factors20
- A Whole School Approach to mitigating risk factors.....20
- The Whole Student Approach21
- Providing a Continuum of Connection.....22

Section 3 Key enablers for the Whole School Approach to mental health and wellbeing.....23

3.1 Extending leadership and participation.....24

- Leadership24
- The role of leadership in a Whole School Approach24
- Leadership and the school’s ethos and environment25
- Leadership and curriculum, teaching and learning25
- Leadership and internal and external partnerships and services.....26
- The Principals Australia L5 leadership framework26
- Student leadership and mental health and wellbeing31
- School core teams leading mental health and wellbeing34
- MindMatters School Planning34

The MindMatters Planning Cycle.....	36
3.2 Increasing staff understanding of mental health and wellbeing	38
The connection between staff mental health and wellbeing and the wellbeing of young people.....	38
Staff Matters	39
The Thriving Self	39
The Interpersonal – collegiate support	39
The Organisational and staff health and wellbeing.....	40
Staff protective factors.....	41
Protective and risk factors for mental health and wellbeing in the workplace	41
Staff knowledge of mental health and wellbeing	42
Workplace stress	42
Beginning teachers and teachers new to the school.....	42
Staff induction, exit and transition.....	43
Behaviour education and staff wellbeing.....	44
Working with staff mental health and wellbeing for a Whole School Approach.....	44
3.3 Making links with other key initiatives	46
Initiative outcomes.....	47
3.4 Evidence-based evaluation and data collection, analysis and action.....	49
The importance of evaluating mental health and wellbeing in schools.....	49
MindMatters evaluations.....	49
School evaluation and data collection	49
Building an ethos of inquiry, data collection and evaluation.....	49
MindMatters data plan and process	50
Step 1 - Organise - Gather, Group, Scan	51
Using the MindMatters audits and surveys.....	52
Conducting a survey	53
Grouping the existing data	54
Step 2 - Analysis - Re-scan, Identify patterns and links, Interpret.....	55
Step 3 - Dissemination - Recomend, Use, Review	55
Ethics and data.....	56
Evidence base for targeted and selected programs	56
The importance of re-surveying and re-collecting data	57
Section 4 Key dimensions of the Whole School Approach to Mental Health and Wellbeing	58
4.1 School ethos and environment	59
School ethos and environment.....	59
A. Allocating dedicated resources	60
B. Clarifying and coordinating policies, structures and process.....	61
C. Ensuring positive communication and relationships across the school	62
4.2 Curriculum: teaching and learning	65
A strategic commitment to Social and Emotional Learning	65
A. Providing a Whole Student Approach	66
B. Curriculum content and integration	67
C. Teaching and learning for engagement	70
Re-engagement.....	71
Teaching social and emotional skills	72

Social and Emotional Learning for academic success	73
Students with high support needs in mental health and academic success.....	74
Assessment and reporting	74
Behaviour education	75
4.3 Internal and external partnerships and services	78
A. Facilitating community, family, parent and caregiver partnerships	78
B. Managing school transitions.....	85
C. Internal and external referral pathways and partnerships	87
Section 5 Students experiencing high support needs in mental health.....	88
5.1 Introduction	88
Defining students experiencing high support needs in mental health	88
A Whole Student Approach.....	90
5.2 Extending leadership and participation.....	92
Leadership for a Whole School Approach for students experiencing high support needs in mental health ...	92
Core team leadership.....	92
School support staff.....	92
Student empowerment and students experiencing high support needs in mental health	93
5.3 Developing staff knowledge and understanding	94
Staff mental health and wellbeing.....	94
Professional debriefing for student support staff	95
5.4 Ethos, environment and policy	96
Whole school communication and relationships	96
Help-seeking	96
Policies relating to students experiencing high support needs in mental health	98
Whole school management structures and processes for students experiencing high support needs in mental health.....	98
School interventions	98
School identification procedures	101
Program Selections.....	102
School external referral.....	102
Case management and case coordination.....	103
Disclosure and confidentiality	104
Mandatory reporting	105
Continuum of support and connection for students experiencing high support needs in mental health	105
Section 6 Critical incidents	107
Critical incident planning.....	108
Connections to the Whole School Approach.....	109
Section 7 Getting started on the Whole School Approach	110
MindMatters Professional Development	111
Using the Professional Development activities.....	114
Professional Development Activities	113
References	116
Glossary	121
Appendices	123